

The City of Kelowna is building an active and vibrant community. The City works to enhance the quality of life for residents, foster a strong, stable and expanding economy, and protect and enhance our natural environment.

As your community foundation, Central Okanagan Foundation is committed to working with private donors, service clubs, businesses, and charitable organizations to stimulate charitable giving, establish endowment funds, and support initiatives that make an ongoing difference in our community and beyond. We are your partners in philanthropy today, tomorrow...forever.

To keep pace with our community's rapid growth and changing needs, United Way has altered its role and is rising to the challenge of becoming community builders. In addition to fundraising for our thirty-nine Community Partners, we are working with these organizations to educate the community and promote volunteerism with our various programs.

Beyond 50 Magazine is the opportunity, the venue, and the platform for people to read, learn, share and communicate. It is everyday people talking about everyday life: their triumphs, their challenges and what motivates them to do what they do.

For more than 80 years, Investors Group has helped Canadians build long-term financial security. Our history illustrates how far we have come since 1926, as we continue evolving to meet the changing needs of our clients.
